

Privacy Statement

- ❶ We are very keen on our privacy and understand that you are too. This is the reason why we have written what we do with your data when visiting our website.

Sharing

- ❶ On our website you will find various social media logos that are linked to our accounts. We would love it if you would follow our pages and like our work. We promise you that we won't bother you with advertisements or any other requests.

Job application

- ❶ You can send us an email through this website to apply for a job. We then process your data by checking it and assess your skills and interests with the aim of finding the right people for our open positions. If you do end up joining us, we keep your data safe in our personnel file so that we have a complete administration of yours. If you don't end up joining Team Argus we won't store your data for more than 4 weeks. In the case that we do see potential but don't have a suitable job opening at the very moment, we will ask you for permission before we (securely) store your data.

Google Analytics

- ❶ We think it's great to be able to check who visits our website from time to time. We use Google Analytics for this, just like everyone else. We therefore place cookies on our website which as a result of this collect data about how visitors use our website. This includes details on where the visitors come from and the total amount of times the visitor has visited our website. We don't use any of this information to bother you and we also do not share our data with google.

Contact

- ❗ If you, for whatever reason, don't want to share any of this information with us, we kindly ask you to send an email to academy@argusproductions.tv and we will try to get rid of all of your data as quickly as possible.
